Advice Skills Academy will be running Level 3 accredited training in Leadership in September 2018.

Accredited by the Institute of Leadership and Management (ILM), the units covered will be:

- Understanding Leadership
- Leading and motivating a team effectively

This Level 3 accredited training is ideal for those who are in a supervisor, team leader, or management role, or those who are interested in gaining skills to move into these roles.

Delivered over 3 days, this course will help learners understand the qualities, roles and responsibilities of leaders; the difference between leadership and management; different leadership styles; vision and strategy; theories of motivation; and the importance of continuous development of the team.

If you're interested in doing this accredited training please speak to your ASA Link staff member

To do the accredited training you must be:

- ◆ Signed up to the Advice Skills Academy project
- ◆ Willing to study and complete written assignments outside of the training sessions
- ◆ Must have sign-off from your CEO
